Order

Order thereon, Press No. 727 d/ 29th Novr. 1898.

The Director of the Royal Indian Marine has reported that no steamer can be spared for the inspection of the islands; nor is the Government able to charter at the present time any suitable private vessel except at prohibitive rates. The Government is accordingly again obliged with regret to postpone the inspection of the islands during this season. If, however, the Collector of South Canara considers it necessary that the islands attached to his district should be visited during the current year, he may depute his Assistant Collector to undertake the duty in a sailing vessel.
