Read—the following paper :—

From the Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Plague Commissioner, dated 11th November 1898, Ref. on C. No. 1095-B.G.

In continuation of this office letter Ref. on C. No. 2502-Rev., dated 21st October 1898, I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of Arzi R. C. No. 2899-Sup., dated 7th November 1898, from the Tahsildar of Trichinopoly together with the endorsement of the Head-quarters Deputy Collector thereon. The cattle fair at Samayapuram is held from 21st to 31st December 1898 in the middle of Yekadasi festival at Srírangam. I think this fair may be prohibited under the circumstances reported by the Tahsildar. I have already moved you regarding the prohibition of the sale of tickets to passengers arriving by rail to attend the festival from plague-infected parts. The statement prescribed in G.O., No. 279 P., dated 25th March 1898, is appended below :—

Name of festival or fair.	Place where held.	Distance to the nearest railway station.	Date of commencement of festival or fair.	Average attendance during past three years.	Number of people expected from infected parts.

No. 660.

Submitted to Government with draft notification for approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Collector the cattle fair may be altogether prohibited.

14*th November* 1898. (Signed) M. HAMMICK,
Plague Commissioner.

To the Local and Municipal Department.

Enclosure.

NOTIFICATION.

Whereas the Governor of Fort St. George in Council is satisfied that there is a danger of an outbreak of plague at Samayapuram, Trichinopoly district, if the annual cattle fair during the Yekadasi festival is permitted to be held at that place from 21st to 31st December 1898 :

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, His Excellency in Council hereby prohibits the holding of the said fair.

Order—No. 1482 P., dated 28th November 1898.

The notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

ORDER—No. 279-P., dated 25th March 1898.

All Collectors are informed that any proposals which they may desire to make in regard to the prohibition of, or imposition of restrictions on, the holding of any largely attended festival or fair in their districts, in view of the prevalence of plague in the provinces bordering on the Madras Presidency, should be forwarded through the Sanitary Commissioner so as to reach Government at least three weeks before the commencement of the festival or fair. The Collectors' reports should be accompanied by a statement in the following form:—

Name of festival or fair.	Place where held.	Distance to the nearest railway station.	Date of commencement and termination of festival or fair.	Average attendance during the past three years.	Number of people expected from plague infected parts.
