To

The British Resident in Tavanaore and Cochin

Sir,

As it is necessary that the sanitary Commissioner should have a thorough practical know-ledge of the plague operations in British India, His Highness the Maharajah's Government have directed him to visit Madras and Bangalore, and familiarise himself with the several measures that are being enforced there. He will be leaving this shortly I request the favor of your kindly arranging with the authorities con-cerned for every facility being given him during his stay at Madras and Bangalore for study judging the disease and the pre-ventive and curative opera-tions.
