Dear Mr. Stokes

As I have to be off immediately, I hope I shall soon hear who will take over charge — unless anybody is already fixed upon, might I suggest that Mr. E. Marden relieve me at once, until the chosen successor arrives — he did the work in 1897 and knows all about it vis on the spot.

With reference to H.E.'s note of the 5th instant, a telegram has been despatched to the D.A.G. with a view to ascertain whether Captain Formby is eligible for the appointment of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, according to the rule, ^{which requires} that ~~such~~ ^{these} appointment should preferentially be offered to a qualified officer
whose non-employment is due to his having completed a tenure of command on a tour of staff duty.

In the mean time an official and a deputy official letter from Col Pryce dated the 6th instant are submitted for orders. In these letters he states that a Medical Board has recommended him for one year's furlough and requests to be informed when and to whom he may hand over charge of the ^{Office of} Paymaster. In the S.O. he desires to be informed of as to who will succeed him and ventures to suggest that Mr. Marsden may relieve him at once until the chosen successor arrives.

In Co. A no 90 Pol. dated 11-3-97 Mr Marsden was ~~discontinued~~ placed in charge of the Paymaster's office and in S.O. no 280

Col. Pryce may be relieved and Mr. Marsden may take over as a purely temporary 'locum tenens'.

11.1.99

N.B. Col. Pryce wants to get away by Saturday. His action is now needed in this. It may be put up with the telegram to India asking for sanction to appoint Capt. Forsyth.

Pol, dated 27-4-97, it was ordered that the allowance of Rs 250 attached to the office should be passed to him.

In his letter no 1487, dated the 12th May 1897, the A.G. contended that the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, carried ~~pay~~ ^{allowance} not an allowance of Rs 250 but on a reference being made ^{to the Govt of India} on the question raised by the Accountant Genl, that Govt decided that the allowance of Rs 250 attached to the office of Paymaster should be treated as a local allowance.

It will thus be seen that if Mr Marsden is again placed in temporary charge of the office he can be given the local allowance without reference to India.
