May it please your Excellency,

On the safe arrival in India and the assumption of your Excellency of the high office of Viceroy and Governor General of India permit me to approach your Excellency's august presence and there lay for your Excellency's gra=cious acceptance my most humble and respectful congratulations due from a loyal subject to the chief representative in India of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen Empress.

(Couplet)

Thine arrival the cause of our joy and
The mention of thee the muse of our mirth.

My prayer to the Almighty God is that during your Excellency's benign adminis=tration all the tribes under your sway will enjoy peace and prosperity and be ever grateful and happy in the success of the achievement of their aims.

As your Excellency's high sense of munificence is universally acknowledged, I humbly venture to entertain a hope that the in=terests of the Muslim community of this vast Empire, which are simply miserable and do not compare

compare favourably with those of other communi= =ties, will receive their fair share of attention at Your Excellency's hands.

In conclusion I most sin=
