case more elaborately x x x if "it has been in any way misrepsented by the Paymaster"!!

The Paymaster's letter alluded to is filed with the GO above quoted & signed P. It is, of course, strongly opposed to petitioner's claims it is subm<sup>d</sup> that there is room for suspicion that the contents of that letter have been made known to petitioner thence his present request with above quoted wording. The mere fact of the Order bearing a "Q" of the Paymaster's letter would not, it is subm<sup>d</sup>, account for the pet's remark. It might be advisable, perhaps, to state the suspicion to the new Paymaster & request him to take steps to make it as little likely as possible that information can be surreptiously obtained from his office as it is possible that the very strict supervision <sup>records</sup> which obtains here does not to the same extent obtain in the Paymaster's Office. -

The petitioner's conclusion that the Paymaster's report was adverse to him (he knew from the copy of the P.O. sent him that the P.C.S. had reported seems natural in view of the fact that Govt refused the petitioner's request. There need not necessarily have been any underhand play.
