CURRENT NO. 144

Sir,

In returning herewith Government Endorsement No. 2089 dated 30 September 1898, I have the honour to report that Banham Subbammal * states that she is under no obligation and declines to make any arrangements for the maintenance of Soundaravalli ammal. relying on Government Order No. 162 dated 17 April 1873.

* Reply enclosed

2. From the Colonial Secretary's letter No. 17 dated 22nd March 1873, Communicated with the Government Order, I will e seem that the Ceylon Government in ejecting the proposal of the Government of Madras to continue the pension to the brother of Bangaru Subbammal's husband, for the benefit of the whole family. decided to continue the pension (which according to the rules would lapse) to the widow herself as an act of grace, "for the maintenance of herself and her children".

3. This Government Order was not before me when I addressed my letter No. 68, dated 9th July 1898, to Government, and in view of the very explicit wording of the Colonial Secretary's

K 509-10 Pdl 23-7-98

Secretary's letter, I am unable to see how Bangaru Subbammal can fairly be made to contribute towards the maintenance of her husband's sister, the petitioner.

4. I beg therefore to recommend that a pension may be given to the petitioner as an act of grace, or that her brother's pension may be raised to Rs 25 coupled with the obligation of providing for his sister.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
