TESTIMONIALS.

Nawab Mahomed Davood Khan Bahadoor, is the grandson of the late Nawab of Kurnool, and if the Principality were still in existence would be the reigning Nabob. I had the pleasure of knowing him intimately during the four years I was at Kurnool, and have kept up my acquaintance with him by correspondence and through his occasional visits to Madras. He is possessed of considerable intelligence and is of courteous and agreeable manners, and has always borne a high character as a Loyal Subject of the Crown. He has a recognized position among the Khandan or family of the late Nawab as its leading member and representative.

MADRAS, 18th March, 1881.

(Signed) L. C. INNES.

Nawab Mahomed Davood Khan Bahadoor was introduced to me by Mr. Justice Innes as a gentleman of distinguished birth and high character. He has frequently visited me and enabled me from personal acquaintance with him to corroborate the opinion of my colleague.

7th May, 1882.

(Signed) C. A. TURNER.

I have known this gentleman for some time, but not so long as Mr. Justice Innes knew him. I believe him to be all that gentleman described him as being—and hope all my friends will treat him with kindness and consideration.

12th December 1883.

(Signed) D. F. CARMICHAEL.

Nawab Mahomed Davood Khan Bahadoor, grandson of the late Nawab of Kurnool, is the leading Member of Mussulman Society at Kurnool by whom he is much respected. He is the representative of the Khandans (the ex-Royal family), and is withal a pleasant, courteous gentleman. I made his acquaintance 15 years ago when I was Collector of Kurnool, and have had much pleasure in renewing my acquaintance with him.

HIS EXCELLENCY

Sir Arthur E. Havelock, G. C. M. G., G. C. I. E.,

GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

*The humble petition of Mohomed
Dareed Khan Bahadoor the only grandson and lineal male representative of the late Nawab Gulam Rasoolkhan Bahadur of Kurnool.*

SHEWETH,

That, though the humble petitioner is the only representative and the sole grandson of the late Nawab of Kurnool, yet he is so unlucky as to get only a small pension of Rs. 400 plus an allowance of Rs. 300 for the education of his sons per mensem. With this pittance it is very hard for him to maintain himself and his large family in a manner suitable to the rank and dignity of his forefathers.

The petitioner has 4 sons and 3 daughters all of whom are fully grown up, besides this he is suffering for many years from Rheumatic pains, for which he is for a long time under treatment, but on account of insufficiency of funds, he is not fortunate enough to secure such medical treatment as is required.

The ages of the petitioner's daughters range from 22 to about 26 years and marriages of some of them have been settled with the Ameers of Hyderabad, Deccan and some are still under settlement. But unfortunately the humble petitioner cannot perform the marriage ceremonies, as circumstances will not permit him to do so in a suitable manner as he is not in the position, as those of the Ameers, to whom he has consented to give his daughters in marriage.

The anxieties of the humble petitioner as regards his children are very distressing. He belongs to and is a representative of that very same family which had the good fortune of being granted a Sannad by the Emperor of Delhi, which, the humble petitioner has in his possession. A translation of which is submitted herewith for kind perusal. The original will also be submitted for reference if required.

To convince Your Excellency of the fact that the humble petitioner is the only representative and the sole grandson by male lineal descent of the late Nawab of Kurnool, he begs leave to refer to para 5 of Mr. Glenny's letter No. 65 dated 28th January 1881, which runs as hereunder, "He is the late Nawab's only representative in the direct line."

The building in which the humble petitioner is put up, is the chief palace of his grandfather the late Nawab, towards the construction of which, a very large amount was spent. The state of the palace this day is, that, one looking at it will be quite surprised to find it being occupied by the petitioner and his family, for it has fallen down on all sides and is in a ruinous condition. In fact there is not a single portion in the premises fit to be occupied without danger. The circumstances also of the humble petitioner are not such as to allow him to do something towards its repairs.

About 20 years ago, the humble petitioner had been (with the permission of this benig Government) to Mecca, along with his grand-mother Saduth Khatooma Saheba, who paid up all the expenses for the journey as well as those for the petitioner's stay there for 5 years, after which period he had to return on account of the death of the said grand-mother at Mecca. The climate of the place quite agreed with the petitioner there, but now he is unable to go and settle there for want of means to do so.

In conclusion, the humble petitioner prays that this Gracious Government may be pleased to aid him in any manner they think proper such an everlasting mercy, as that shown by Lord Napier towards His Highness Prince Ajeemja Bahadoor of Arcot by exempting him from attending the Courts and making permanent arrangements towards the maintenance of the said Prince and his descendants, so that the humble petitioner and his descendants may remember this benign Government for ever and ever.

And for this act of justice and mercy, your petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.
