Subject

Petition from M^r Sakhavut Hussain descendant of 2nd Prince of Arcot.

C. No. 214 From the M^r Sakharov, No. —, dated 3-2-1895

For Orders -

The petitioner in this Current is a son of Shabbiria Begam 3rd daughter of Zahir-ud-daulah the 2nd Prince of Acreot by his 1st shade wife Rashid un nisa Begam.

She draws a pension of Rs 325 + Rs 50 - the latter amount being derived from the ^{late} Prince's personal allowance of Rs 900 per mensem.

2. The petitioner states that the stipend of the Mother is quite insufficient to support all who are dependent on her. In order to better his circumstances, therefore, he proposes to try & secure employment in the Nizam's service. To increase his prospects of success in this attempt he requests that will give him an introduction to the Resident of Hyderabad stating who the petitioner is. In the event of this request being thought "highly ambitious" an alternative request is preferred that pet^r may be exempted from some examination so that "he may be qualified for the public service". He states that he knows the English, Urdu & Persian languages but "by action of time & circumstances he was unable to pass any examination."

3- The petitioner is married to Ammat un nur Ahmadi Begam who has one son - Muhammad ^{Rudsha} Ansaam-by her, but he does not mention these facts in his petition.

4. With reference to the first of these two requests attention is solicited to the notes of Mr. Arundel & the BPO correspondence filed with GO 258 Pol d/16-4-98 from which it may be inferred that or entertained. Orders are requested as to whether the petition may be referred to the Paymaster Car-native Stipends with reference to the second request & in view to ascertaining what qualification if any, the petitioner possesses for public service. —

For the U. S.

Submitted that the petitioner may be at once informed that the Govt. will not grant him a note to the Resident as requested, and that his prayer for exemption from examination rules may be transferred to the Educational department for disposal.

Draft is submitted accordingly.
