3. The permanent Public Works Department Subordinate was transferred about 8 months ago and as the building was vacant when

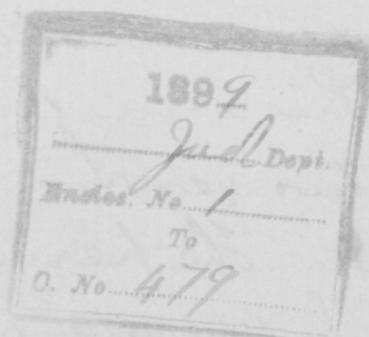

The Pioneers came up here to fill in the Lake, it was taken by them as a Hospital and has been vacant since they left about 2 months ago. It is really the Public Works Department Overseer's Quarters but at present there is no European Overseer at Ootacamund.

Memo No. 1363 C d/4 March 1899:—

Forwarded to the Consulting Architect with the request that proposals may be submitted as early as possible for making such alterations in the building as may be necessary to provide quarters for Secretariat Clerks.

Office Note from the Consulting Architect to Govt, No. 4223 dated 29 March 1899:—

Building is occupied by Chitralis. I went to see it. Please send me letter to prepare estimates as I return these papers which I will prepare forthwith.
