My Lord,

I have great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of your Lordship's Kharita dated 5th January, 1899, in which you bid me a cordial farewell on the termination of your Viceroyalty and your departure from India. The Kharita was presented to me by the Acting British Resident at this Court in public Durbar.

2. It is a matter of great gratification to me to learn that the special attention and care which the affairs of my State have received from Your Lordship during your Viceroyalty will not cease with your departure from India, but that Your Lordship will continue to watch with personal interest and solicitude my career and the progress of my State.

3. With my sincere wishes for Your Lordship's health and happiness, and the assurance of my high consideration,

I remain,

Your sincere friend,

(Signed.) Rama Varmah

Raja of Cochin.

Viceroy and Governor-General of India,

Calcutta.

My Lord,

I have great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of Your Lordship's Kharita dated 24th January, 1899, announcing your appointment by Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, Empress of India, to the office of Viceroy and Governor-General of India, in succession to the Right Honourable the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, and Your Lordship's assumption of your office. The Kharita was presented to me by the Acting British Resident at this Court in public Durbar.

2. I feel grateful for Your Lordship's assurance that you will always take a deep interest in all matters which concern me and my State.

3. I take this opportunity to express my earnest desire to maintain the cordial alliance and friendship which have hitherto characterized the relations of my House with the British Government.

4. With my sincere wishes for Your Lordship's health and happiness, and the assurance of my high consideration,

I remain,

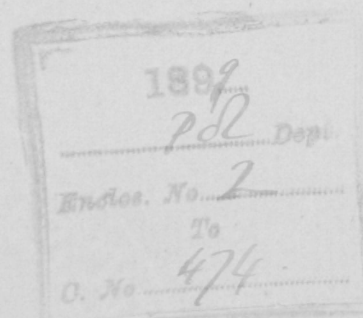

Your sincere friend,
