Captain R. F. R. Forsyth J.S.C.
Ag. Paymaster Jarnatic Stipendiaries Chepak.

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to your Memorandum No. 820 dated 23rd Instant, I have the honor to report as follows:-

2. Jarnatic Stipendiary No. 1276, Kariw-un-misa Begam was drawing a "Jagir" stipend of Rupees 120-0-0 per mensem by G.O. No. 197 dated 19 March 1857, and died issueless on the 28th of October, 1898.

3. Three petitions were received in this office up to date, the first signed by 3 dependants, the second by 4 other dependants, and the 3rd by a nephew of the deceased all claiming a continuation from the lapsed stipend, on the ground that the pension of the deceased is returned as "continuable" in Appendix A published with G.O. No. 135 dated 1st March 1897 "Political" - Part I, page 3, serial No. 32.

4. I endorsed all the 3 petitions disallowing their claims, as in my humble opinion I did not consider any of them eligible for a pension. The fact of merely returning the stipends of pensioners in a list does not entitle them to claim a continuation therefrom, specially when most of the petitioners are provided for, or otherwise in well-to-do circumstances.

5. I understand there are 3 more relatives of the deceased, who themselves being stipendiaries have not petitioned this office for a continuation but intend applying to the Courts of Justice for their shares in the estate of the deceased which I am told ~~are~~ ^{is} in the shape of landed property worth about between 30 to 40 thousands of Rupees.

6. Under the foregoing circumstances I beg to recommend that the stipend of Rupees 120 drawn by the late Karim-un-nisa Begam should lapse to the State in toto.

I have the honour to be

To

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

Fort Saint George.

The humble petition of KHADIR-UN-NISAU
BEGUM, adopted Daughter and Chief Dependent of the late KARIM-UN-NISAU BEGUM SAHIBA, residing at Janai Jehan Khan Road, No. 51, Triplicane.

HUMBLY SHEWETH:—

1. That your Petitioner was, while a baby in arms, taken away from her parents and supported by the deceased, Karim-un-Nisau Begum, who was drawing a Carnatic Jaghir pension of Rs.120 per mensem, and who departed this life on the 27th October, 1898, at Madras.

2. The said deceased, who was a rich lady, spent a very large sum towards Petitioner's maintenance, and got her married in 1896 to a gentleman without any employment, the marriage expenses alone amounting to about 10,000 Rupees.

3. Petitioner, along with the two other chief dependents of the late Begum, applied to the Paymaster of the Carnatic Stipends for a continuation of the late Begum's pension to them, in accordance with the existing rules that regulate the administration of pensions, and an endorsement (herein enclosed in original) has been received by her to the effect that petitioners, being only the dependents of the deceased lady, are not entitled to a continuation from the lapsed stipend of the deceased stipendiary.

4. Prior to her demise, the late Karim-un-Nisau Begum submitted a list of her dependents (three in number) to Government, on the 25th March, 1897, and subsequently to the Paymaster on the 29th April, 1897, to which the latter Officer gave an endorsement, which is herewith enclosed (in original) for Your Excellency's kind perusal.

5. Petitioner humbly begs to submit that by a Government Order passed in January, 1898, in the case of the late Malik-un-Nisau Begum, it was ruled that the wishes expressed by a deceased stipendiary were to be respected, and Government sanctioned pensions to her servants and dependents only (she being childless) to the extent of two-thirds of the stipend enjoyed by the late Malik-un-Nisau Begum.

6. Petitioner further begs to state that there are instances on record in which the benevolent Government have invariably granted pensions to dependents and servants of deceased stipendiaries, whether such stipendiaries have left children, or died issueless. In fact, the G.O. published in November, 1898, regulating shares of children and grandchildren, under Lord Clive's scales, also makes provision for dependents and servants, even if a stipendiary should die leaving issue; and the pension enjoyed by the deceased, Karim-un-Nisau Begum, was amongst the list of continuable pensions, published with a G.O. passed in March, 1897.

2. Fifteen persons presented (direct a petition in which they claimed to be dependants of the deceased

however rejected under the Rule.
The fact that no intimation had been given ^{by the PCS} as to the future of the

put up on the docket of the petn which led the CS to order that the PCS's attention be called to the matter. This has been done does not consider any of the

that "most of the petitioners are provided for, or otherwise in well-to-do circumstances."
It might be ^{assumed} ~~gathered~~ from this that such of the petitioners as are not "provided for or otherwise that the Paymaster's report appears to be too "general" - not should, it is thought, be stipulated to send a tabular supplement showing the

at the They derived from her relations; and their own private sources of income or means of livelihood. The pension (Rs 120) is a ^{comparatively} large one and it will prove more satisfactory in this end & easier to resist spurious claims in the future, if the question is thoroughly sifted
