SIR,

Adverting to Government Order No. 180 / 27.2.99, I have the honour to report that the following establishment is under the Control of the Political Agent (please vide Govt: Order No. 186 / 6.3.99):-

1	Political Moonshee and Khewan Superintendent	40 Rs
1	Male peon	5 Rs
1	Female peon	3½ Rs

The only officer competent to pass an order prejudicially affecting any of the above persons is the Political Agent himself and an appeal appeal against such an order will, in the ordinary course, lie to Government; but if the Establishment is treated as part of the Collector's Office and if the Collector is considered the head of the District for purposes of administration including that of the Political Department and the Board the Controlling authority, an appeal may be declared as admissible by the latter tribunal whose decision in the case of the two peons may be final and no second appeal need be entertained by Government.

If similarly an order has been passed by the Board on appeal against an order of the Political Agent affecting the Moonshee (Rs 40/-) the former would, it seems to me, be final under the new Clause

Clause (11) contained in para 1 of Government Order No. 199/17.2.99 Public, but this point is outside the scope of para 2 of that Govt: order which deals only with employés on Rs 25/- or less and in reference to which a report has been called for from me.

F O R O R D E R S.

Y Please see para. 2 of G.O.No. 199, Public, dated 17-2-99 (in G.O.No. 180 Pol., dated 27-2-99) which directed that orders should issue in each dept. of the Sect. specifying the officers, or classes of officers, drawing a salary of not more than Rs.25 per mensem, in whose case a second appeal should be althogether prohibited. The currents mentioned above contain the reports of Political officers on the subject.

I 2. The Political Agent, Sandur, reports that he has no separate Political establishment.

II 3. The Political Agent, Pudukkottai remarks " there is no class of "officers in this office drawing a "salary less than Rs.25 per mensem in "whose case a second appeal is to be "altogether prohibited."

4. The Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends says he has 3 clerks "in whose cases a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited ". This officer omits any reference to his peons. III

(drawing less than Rs.35 p.m.)

5. The Political Agent, Banganapalle says he has a male peon on Rs.5 and a female peon on Rs.3½ who fall under the class referred to in para. 3 of the Public G.O. under reference. He argues that if they are treated as a Political establishment they are under his control subject, at present, to an appeal to Govt; but if they be "treated as part of the Collector's office" &c. the case is different. IV

6. The Resident, Travancore and Cochin submits a list of 8 clerks drawing Rs.35 and ~~under~~ in whose case, he says, " a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited".One of these eight is called "Assistant Treasurer". The Resident has also a "Shroff" on Rs.14 and many peons, but he makes no reference to them. V

7. The Govt. Agent, Tanjore, who has not been referred to, has "3 clerks" and "3 servants" drawing Rs. 35 or less.

Please see C.B.R.page 181.

New para

8. From the foregoing summary of the replies it will be seen that all the officers consulted have not read the reference in the same light. In order for there to be a second appeal there must be some authority intermediate between the punishing officer and Govt.. The Political Agent, Banganapalle rightly points out (para.5 supra) that in the case of his Political establishment, there is no appellate authority to whom a second appeal can be carried. since Govt. is the only appellate authority and appeals [illegible] from ~~of~~ Govt. servants on Rs.25 and less are already barred by Section III Rule 3(7) of the B Memorial rules. It may be that the Assistant Resident in Travancore and Cochin is invested by the Resident with powers of punishment in the case of the Residency establishment, but even if this is the case, ~~[illegible]~~ appeals from this establishment are seldom, if ever, received. It is thought that Political may decide that there are no cases ~~claim~~ of subordinates in that dept. in which a second appeal should be prohibited.
