Endorsement on petition dated 9th May 1892 from Mir Abbas Ali, a Sepoy of the 2nd Madras Lancers Bangalore, praying that he may be recommended to Government for pension, which would have been granted to his mother who died without obtaining any. The petitioner is informed, that there is nothing in the records to show, that the pension is a hereditary one, and that the petitioner has not been given his share of it, but it seems to be a charitable grant given to the members of Tipu Sultan's family on account of their needy circumstances - The petitioner is not even in needy circumstances, as he seems to be serving now as a Sepoy in the Military Department. His petition is therefore dismissed.

Mir Abbas Ali, trooper No 583 in H E the Governor's Body Guard petition for a pension to which he considers he has a right under the following circumstances — 2. Khirdmund Ali, a brother in law of Tippu Sultan, who died in 1808, drew a pension of Rs 97-3-8 ^{in 1808} per annum. On his death the sum of Rs 77-12-6 was continued therefrom to his shadi wife Piari Begum. She Piari Begum died in 1863 & proposals were then made by the Vellore Stipend Pay Officer for a distribution of her stipend amongst her surviving relatives. These proposals were, however, rejected by Govt on the ground that the relatives

5. The reason given by the petr for no claim having been made @ the time is that he was then a minor & residing with his father @ Hyderabad.
He complains that one Mir Saib, an uncle, who also petitioned Govt, 12 years after his Piri Begum's death, for a pension failed to mention his (the petr's) name existence & that he was thus kept out of his rights. Mir Saib was recommended to the Govt of Ind for a pension of Rs 8 "in consideration of the advanced age & destitute condition of the petitioner." It was sanctioned by Ind.
G.O. No 1257 dt 6th Mch/75.
6. The petitioner ^{now} makes his request on the ground of "hereditary right" but it is subm^d that on this ground he has none, for the Govt of India, in handing over the control of the ^{three two lakh annas} ~~Bayana~~ Stipend ^{to this Govt} in 1878, made several conditions, of which one was - "the "existing allowances, & stipends which have lapsed shall be renewed, if renewed at all, only as compassionate grants & that the fresh grants shall never exceed $\frac{3}{4}$ of the lapsed amount," - from which it is clear that no "hereditary rights" can now be maintained. The two precedents quoted by the pet'r & draft with in this note, were granted, it will be observed, purely on compassionate grounds & because the recipients were aged & destitute.

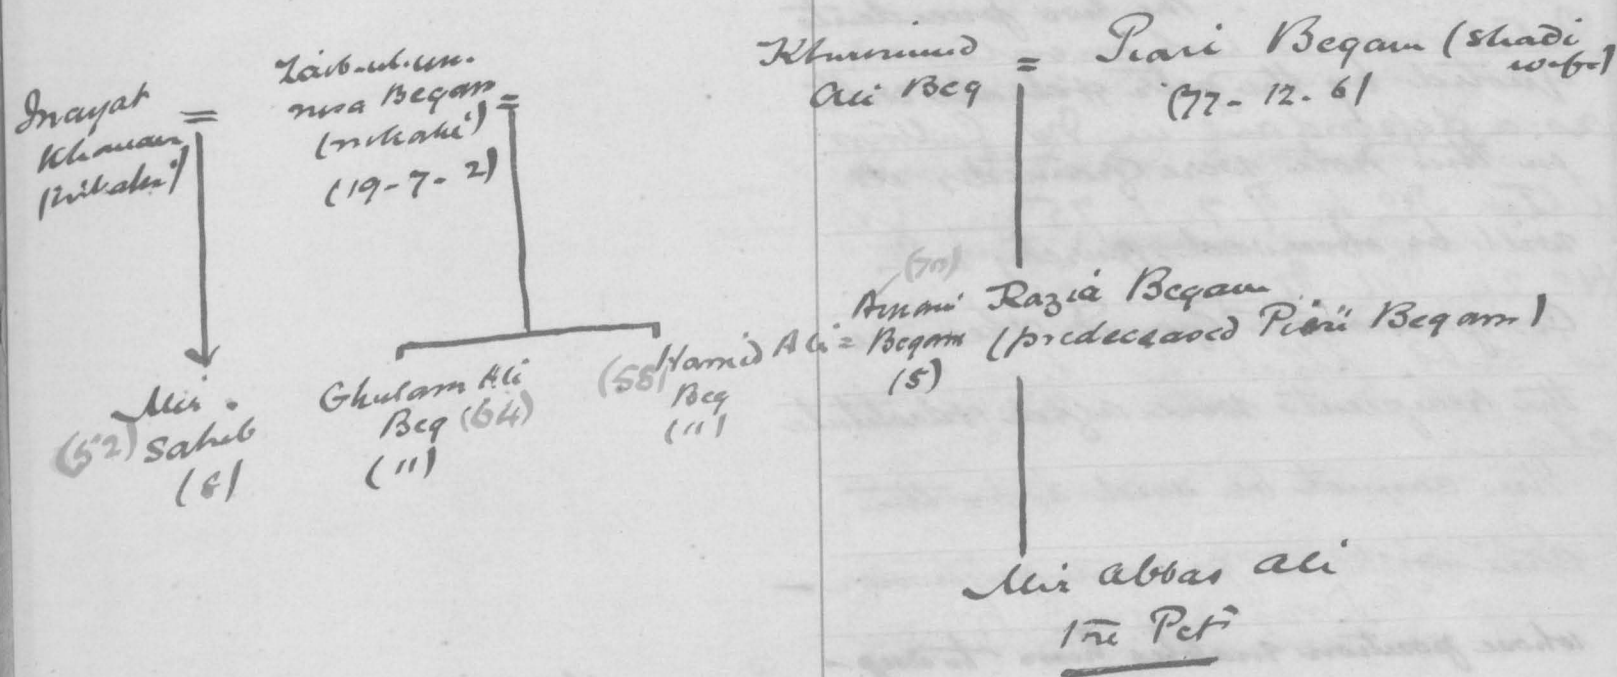

This cannot be said to be the case with the present petitioner - whose position enables him to support himself & family in a manner quite equal to his rank. It is subm^d, therefore, that no case has been made out for renewing the question of a pension which lapsed 36 years ago.

The continuations which have been made from the Note - Para 4 of the letter here quoted from permits a special recommendation to India for grants of special allowances in cases where descendants of the Mysore family seem to need or deserve it - such cases being dealt with in the same way as any other deserving subjects. It is, however, for orders whether there is such a case.

The pensions granted to Mir Sahib, Khuram Ali Beg, Hamid Ali Beg and Omami Begam, the widow of the last named, were all compassionate life grants. Petitioner is in the next generation to all these and although his case is that his mother Razia Begam had she been alive, would have received a share of Razi Begam's stipend in the death of the latter, it does not necessarily follow that Razi Begam's stipend would have descended into the next generation. The history of the stipend goes to show that it would not. Petitioner is not mentioned as a dependant in Mr. Fallow's letter No 4 of 7. 1. 75 in G.O.
