To
The Right Honorable
George Nathaniel, Baron Curzon of Kedleston G. M. I. I., G. M. I. O., in the County of Derby, in the Peerage of Ireland, Viceroy and Governor-General of India

My Lord,

I have had the honor of receiving in public Dublin and with all the customary marks of distinction from the hands of my esteemed friend, Mr. F. A. Nicholson, the British Resident at my Court, the Right Honorable the Earl of Ely's letter dated the 5th January last apprising me of His Excellency's departure from India.

I have also similarly received Your Lordship's letter of the 24th idem, informing me that Your Lordship has assumed charge of the high Office of Vicarary and Governor-General.

I feel deeply grateful for the sincere wishes expressed in both these communications for the prosperity of my country. That prosperity, I have always felt, is indissolubly connected with that of Her Majesty's dominions, and it is my fervent prayer that Almighty God may be pleased to vouchsafe to those dominions enduring peace and ever-increasing progress.

I beg to express my deep gratitude for the high honor, referred to in Lord Elgin's letter, which Her Imperial Majesty has been pleased to confer upon me. I consider it not only as a token of Her Majesty's special favour, but also as a proof of the interest which

Her Majesty and Her Representatives take in the well-being of this ancient State.

I sincerely wish Your Lordship every success in the government of the great Empire Her Majesty has confided to your care, and I beg to express the hope that, during your tenure of office, the friendly relations which have so long and so happily subsisted between the British Government and this State will continue to be strengthened.

Before concluding, I beg to acknowledge, on behalf of Her Highness the Rane, the communication to her address, and to assure Your Lordship that she fully participates in the sentiments which I have expressed.

Entertaining the highest consideration for your Lordship,

I beg to subscribe myself, your Lordship's sincere and faithful friend
