Sir,

Referring to G. O. No. 248 dated 17th April 1899, I have the honour to state that pending final orders in the case of Daniel Beg and his companions, I propose to use the three rooms, in the front of the Office of the Inspector General of Prisons, which that Officer has placed at my disposal, for the accommodation of the Chikalis during the day.

2. They may continue to sleep at nights in the Sub Jail.

I have the honour to be

Sir
Your most obedient servant

Sir,

In continuation of my letter Re. no 67/99 dated the 26th April 99, I have the honour to report that Daniel Beg & his companions strongly objected to being placed in the rooms in front of the office of the Inspector General of Prisons, and after considering the matter I came to the conclusion that the accommodation was not sufficient for them and accordingly have engaged a house belonging to Meerjee Saik at a monthly rental of Rs 25 for their temporary accommodation for which the sanction of Government is solicited. The house is situated above the main bazaar

C. No 558
RC No 67 of 27.4.99

The Lodging of Daniel Beg and his companions in the premises of a building formerly used as a jail, & which now has the high surrounding wall & is, with it is thought, be ^{misconstrued} by the chitralis who are Political prisoners only - I have been told that Daniel Beg and his companions are separated from their wives, who are ~~still~~ at Brookhampton with the remainder of the chitralis. These two were separated from the main body of the chitralis to avoid the chance of trouble at Brookhampton; but it was not the intention, it is thought, that they should be treated as if in custody for any fault. Perhaps the D.M. might be written to (DO) on the subject.

Notes

GO No 248 Pol @ A
17-4-99

With reference to GO No 989 W of 7/4/99 in the Public Works Dept the D.M., Nilgiris was requested to submit proposals for the accommodation of Daniel Beg & his associate ^{from S.I.} pending orders on this case. In Current No 558 the D.M. proposed to use three rooms in front of the office of the S.I. of Prisons for the purpose - making the men sleep, as before, in the Sub-jail at night. In C No 587, however, the D.M. states that Daniel Beg & his associates strongly objected to the proposed quarters & that on reconsideration of the matter he (the D.M.) has engaged a house belonging to one Miranji Sait, at a monthly rental of Rs 25, for their temporary accommodation. The house is an isolated one, situated above the main bazaar, about 3 minutes walk from the sub-jail where the Chitralis will, the W.M. states, continue to sleep at nights. The latter requests the sanction of Govt. to this arrangement.

2. The difficulties which necessitated the separation of these Chitralis from those lodged in "Brookhampton" ^{have been} ~~are~~ represented to the Govt of India & a reply has been received stating that the Col Agents ^{for} Dir, Swat & Chitral have been comm^d with as to the possibilities of Daniel Beg being returned to Chitral & that on receipt of a reply from those officers, instructions will at once be given to this Govt as to the ~~disposal~~ disposal of Daniel Beg & his companions.

3. As the Govt of India has sanctioned Rs 150 per month for the accommodation of all the prisoners & that sum is being expended for "Brookhampton" it would appear necessary to address India for sanction to the additional expenditure. On the other hand there is a provision of Rs 200/- for "other charges" in the Current year's budget & perhaps, pending the decision of the Govt of India, this extra rent may be met from that sum, a further allotment being requested if the prisoners ~~persons~~ now separated from those in "Brookhampton" should be ordered to be retained in Botacamund.

4. Orders are solicited as to whether the W.M.'s proposal may be sanctioned & whether the Govt of India shall be, ~~now~~ at present, further addressed or whether the ^{extra} charge shall be met from "other charges" in the budget pending India's decision.

JWS
10/5/99

For the C.B.

There is no ^{at present} necessity to go to India for an add. allotment, as of Daniel Bay is sent back to Chitral. There will be savings in the allotment for "Food" & in other items.
