G.O., Mis. No. 1752, Revenue, dated 13th May 1899.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Political Agent, Banganapalle, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 28th February 1899, No. H-Tour :—

The Banganapalle Nawab being desirous of introducing the tree-tax system into his state and improving his abkari revenue generally agreeably to my suggestions requested me to arrange for the deputation of a competent Sub-Inspector on Rs. 40 for the purpose. I addressed the Assistant Commissioner of the Bellary sub-division on the subject and asked him to nominate a smart, efficient and trustworthy man for the special duty, and he has now recommended one Mahadeva Aiyar, fourth-grade Sub-Inspector on Rs. 40, Hadagalli range, Hospet circle, as the best man that can be selected for the work. The Nawab has agreed to pay the Sub-Inspector his permanent salary plus the usual pensionary contribution, and I beg to request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction to the deputation of this officer for service under the Nawab.

2. It is at present thought that the Sub-Inspector will be employed on the special duty for six months, but he will probably be retained longer.

3. The Assistant Commissioner's nominee has put in ten-and-half years service and therefore fulfills condition (iii) of the conditions mentioned in article 806 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Order—Mis. No. 1752, Revenue, dated 13th May 1899.

Under the authority delegated to it in paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 660, Revenue, dated 23rd November 1896, the Board of Revenue will be requested to arrange for the transfer of the services of Sub-Inspector R. Mahadeva Aiyar to the Banganapalle State on the terms proposed by the Nawab. Should the Sub-Inspector's deputation last for a longer period than six months, the usual contribution on account of pension only should be levied for the whole period of transfer. The Nawab's assent to this condition should be obtained before the Sub-Inspector is actually transferred.
