NOTE FOR THE Chief Secretary

C. No. 323

A minute of appointment of Captain Quinn to act as Assistant Resident Travancore & Cochin is submitted.

From the copy of Foreign Dept Notificatio No 1514 G, dated the 16th August 1895, in G.O. No. 567 Political, dated the 26th August 1895, it will be seen that the services of Captain Quinn are already at the disposal of this Govt and that therefore there is no necessity for applying to India for his services for employment in the Civil De of the British Govt.

But it is submitted tha it is necessary ~~to ask the Resident~~ to request th Travancore Darbar to replace Captain Quinn services at the disposal of this Govt.

N

2d para of C No 482 and telegram C No 476

The Resident also requests that the services of a British Militar Officer junior in service to Lt E. E. Bousfield may be len to the Darbar to take the place of Captain Quinn as Commandant of the 1st Battal Nayar Brigade during the employment of Captain Andre as Assistant Resident. As the Residents wants the new officer to be junior to Lt Bousefield who commands the 2nd Battalion, Nayar Brigad the proposal seems to be to place Lt Bousefield in charge of the 1st Batta and the new officer in Char of the second.
