Note.

The Political Agent, Pudukkottai, submits a list of nine G.O's spare copies of which he requests may be furnished to him for transmission to the Dewan of Pudukkottai who has requested to be supplied with them for record in his office. The Political Agent further requests sanction to supply the Dewan, with a spare copy of all printed proceedings which may hereafter be sent to him for communication to the Durbar if Govt. sees no objection to this being done, two copies of all such proceedings being sent to him in future for that purpose.

2. The G.O's quoted by the Political Agent are principally plague G.O's and four were placed on the Editor's Table It may be observed that these G.O's were not necessarily communicated to the Political Officers "for communication to Durbars" in entirety; in fact the words for

"for communication to the Durbar" are not in any single case used. It is submitted that in some cases there may be letters read in these proceedings or instructions issued in separate paras of the order which Govt would not wish to have read and recorded by Native States. Hence it appears doubtful whether the general sanction requested by the Political Agent in para. 2 of his letter should be accorded. With regard to the G.O's quoted, while there appears to be nothing in them which it would do harm for native states to see, it is submitted that to prevent a bad precedent being established it might be advisable to limit the desired sanction to G.O's which are placed on the Editors Table.

Orders are solicited.

P The proposal of A would make complicate despatching. How many copies of Comm'd Pol G.O's does the P.A now get? It will suffice if an addl copy be sent in future; but in making this rule the P.A. should be given to understand that, as pointed out above, the supply of these spare copies does not do away with the necessity for his forwarding Secretly any fortnightly G.O's communicated
