Austro Hungarian Consul @ Madras.

Note -

* C No 733 —

The Foreign Dept wires that if there is no objection to Herr Carl Frumler as Consul for Austro Hungary he may be recognised in that capacity.

The telegram adds that Herr Frumler is not resident at Madras but that he was Leg Consul in 1892 at Bombay, and asks whether he has arrived & if not when he is expected.

Please see telegram @ A

III * C No 797.

2. On the 10th inst the Commr of Police was asked by wire for information & his reply, just received, states that Herr Frumler has not yet arrived in Madras & that nothing is known there of him, but that Bombay wires that he is a respectable man to whose appointment there need be no objection raised.

3. It is subm^d that under these Circ^s Herr Trumler may be recognised as Austro Hungarian Consul & that India may be informed that there is no objection to his appointment. India's last question cannot be at once answered but with a view to furnishing the information later a draft telegram to Comm^r of Police asking him to report the arrival or date of arrival when known is add^d subm^d for approval if considered necessary.

Perhaps the best course will be to try & ascertain from Messrs Best & Co. a partner of which firm Mr. S. Lynn a partner has been Acting Austro-Hungarian Consul (under F.O. No. II 269 P.O. of 27.4.99) - whether they know anything about Herr Trumler's movements. It seems premature to notify his recognition as Consul until it is certain that he is in Madras.

Please see draft telegram below.

What is the right name?
We have had it as Trumler,

C.S.

Ch.

Herr Trumler's name is not for in Thacker. "Prumler" is merely a clerical misreading of the f of I's telegram by the registering dept — "Trumler" is Best & Co's version unless the telegraph signaller has misread the "f" for a "t" which is not unlikely. India says "Trumler" it has been so rendered throughout these notes & the various disposals connected therewith. It is subm^d that India's version may be relied upon. Draft disposal resubmitted of the C.B.

Her f (P?) number has not arrived in Madras & no information can be procured as to when he is likely to reach there. In these circumstances perhaps the best course will be to write to India saying that there is no objection to his recognition at Austro-Hungarian Consul but that information as to his probable arrival at Madras is not procurable & x

in docket of
C No 783.
It looks as much like a "b" as an "f" in the telegram this cannot be considered an authority.
