No. 22 in Appendix to O.O. 33,
Poll, 3d/19-1-91.

The Acct. Genl. forwards a letter from the Collector of Banghal announcing the death of Brundavana Chandra Leo - a Parlaximedi pensioner - and requesting the Acct. Genl. to issue a P.P. order for the continuation of a moiety of the pension of Rs. 72 per mensem to the deceased's "aged son named Ramachandra Jagapati Narayana Leo who is the guardian of the other members of the family." The Acct. Genl. forwards a copy of the letter ~~to the~~, and enquires whether the moiety which is returned "continuable for one generation" may be paid to the party named, who, however, has petitioned the Collector for a continuation of the whole amount of the pension.

3. In the printed notes on the Parliam^{ent} Bill (pp 15-18) the pension of the deceased Brundavana Chandraⁿ Rao is referred to as a rather doubtful one although it was sanctioned as contributable for

for one generation after him with the proviso that sums under L. 15 continued therefrom would be subject to commutation

3. The ^{Genealogical} table on page 15 does not show that Brundavana Chandra had a son although in the case of two other members the fact that they had issue is noted.

Brundavana Chandra's son and heir is said to be "aged" and it is not understood why the son is not shown in a table ^{prepared} so late ^{by} as 1891. This omission does not, of course, necessarily throw doubt on the existence of an aged son but it calls attention to the fact that the information as to the dependants of the deceased now furnished by the Collector is very meagre and in view of the fact that a mistake was made in L. 2 for want of more complete information being placed before the then Collector on the decease of a member of the family, it is submitted,

1st-that on the decease of any of these stipendiaries the Collector of Tanjavur should report the fact to Govt. (not to the Asst. Genl.) at the same time submitting a statement of the persons entitled to a share of the pension together with, in the case of continuable pensions, his recommendations as to the distribution of the amount;

2nd-that the Collector should now be requested to supply further particulars as to the alleged son, together with such a statement as that above described;

3rd-that the Collector be requested to

See para 55 of Printed Note

This course would be in accordance with practice in the case of Carnatic & other stipends -

inform the son of the deceased that Govt. ^{would not} decline to continue more than a moiety of the pension under any circumstances; this will perhaps prevent time being wasted all round by petitions to Govt. on the subject;

4th-that unless the Collector can satisfy Govt. that ^{persons} entitled to share in the pension have agreed to the amount being paid to one person for their united support all shares under L. 15 be commuted in accordance with the usual rules and with para. 69 of the Parliamentary Stipend Notes already alluded to.

For the C.S.

B-The foregoing may, it is submitted be done. As regards A above, however, it is against the usual practice to continue in one name ~~persons~~ when there are several shares entitled to participate in the distribution of a continuable stipend. In many cases; this course is suggested by the sharers themselves in order to evade compulsory commutation
