POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., No. 86, Political, dated 4th February 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Distributing, with remarks, among Mir Husain 'Ali Khán Sahib, Bégama Bégam and Bégam Bī Rs. 39-6-0, the sum continuable from the stipend of the late Pādshāh Bégam.

READ—also the following paper:—

From R. H. CAMPBELL, Esq., Acting Collector of North Arcot, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 28th June 1899, Ref. on Petn. No. 216.

With reference to paragraph 7 of the G.O., No. 18, Political, dated 21st January 1890, I have the honour to report the death, on the 11th March 1899, of Mahal pensioner Bégam Bī, No. 2974, who was in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs. 9 under G.O., No. 86, Political, dated the 4th February 1897. This pension was a portion of the stipend enjoyed by the late Pādshāh Bégam (deceased's mother) which was declared continuable to the families of the holders—vide Appendix B to the Government Order first quoted.

2. Mir Husain 'Ali Khán Sahib, deceased's uncle and guardian, through whom the minor (aged 11 years) was drawing her pension, in his petition addressed to me, requests that the pension in full may be continued in his name, he being the head of the family, consisting of nineteen persons, who are entirely dependent on him, and it being intended for the support of the representatives of the late Saiyid Nural Absar Khán. He quotes the instances of (1) 'Abbāsī Bégam, a Carnatic stipendiary, (2) Sājidā Bégam, a Political pensioner, and (3) Muhi-ud-din Husain, a Maisūr pensioner, in which the pensions enjoyed by the depending members of a family were continued in full after their deaths to the head of the family. I submit the case, therefore, for the orders of Government.

3. The delay in submitting this report is due to the facts that intimation of the pensioner's death was given by the guardian only on the 14th instant owing, it is alleged, to his having been away from the Vellore town in consequence of the prevalence of plague there, and that thereafter the Tahsildar had to be addressed for enquiry into the case.

ORDER—No. 452, Political, dated 11th July 1899.

The pension of Bégam Bī must, in the circumstances under which it was granted and in view of the history of the stipend, be held to have lapsed.

NOTE CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 452, POLITICAL, DATED 11TH JULY 1899.

From the Collector of North Arcot, Reference on Petn. No. 216, dated 28th June 1899.

FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

The Collector of North Arcot reports the death of Bégam Bī, who was in receipt as uncle of the deceased and as head of the family of nineteen persons who are said to look to him for support, for the continuation in full of the pension.

2. Mir Husain 'Ali Khán has made many claims on Government for a pension but without success until the death of Pādshāh Bégam, already referred to, when it was held that his case had been somewhat overlooked, in consequence of which he was given a substantial share in the three-fourths of Pādshāh Bégam's stipend which was of a pension of Rs. 9 per mensem in virtue of her relationship to Pādshāh Bégam, a Mysore stipendiary, whose pension was held by this Government to be "continu-able". A request is now made, through the Collector, by Mir Husain 'Ali Khán continued to her family by G.O., No. 86, Political, dated 4th February 1897. His case is fully dealt with in the printed notes connected with the order just quoted.

3. Mir Husain quotes three instances in which, he alleges, pensions were continued in full. These cases are not set out in this note, however, as it is thought that, in view of the emphatic terms of paragraph 2 (11) of G.O., No. 122, Political, dated 27th February 1878, and paragraph 4 of G.O., No. 18, Political, dated 21st January 1890, the only possible disposal of the request is its refusal.

The continuation of any sum from this pension would raise a precedent for a continuation from the stipends of Mir Husain 'Ali Khán and Bégama Bégam, who also shared in Pādshāh Bégam's stipend [G.O., No. 86, Political, dated 4th January 1897]. Pādshāh Bégam's stipend itself was a compassionate grant, and its continuation to her daughters was necessitated by a previous misconception of the facts of the case [paragraph 4 and top of page 8 of notes in G.O., No. 86, Political, dated 4th January 1897]. Bégam Bī was eleven years old at the time of her death and could not, therefore, have had any real dependants. This case seems to be another attempt of her uncle Mir Husain 'Ali Khán Sahib to increase his own income.

Ref. 5 in Appendix B to E.O. no. 13, Ref., dated 21-1-90,

The Collector of North Arcot reports the death of Begam Ali, who was in receipt of a pension of Rs. 2 per mensem ^{Rs.} by virtue of her ~~husband's~~ relationship to Padshan Begam, a Mysore Stipendiary whose pension was held by this Govt. to be "continuable". A request is now made, through the collector, by Mir Fuzsain Ali Khan, as uncle of the deceased and as head of the family of 19 persons who are said to look to him for support, for the continuation in full of the pension.

7. Sir Hussein Ali Khan has made many claims on Govt. for a pension but without success until the death of Tashghat Begum, already referred to, when it was held that she gave him an annual allowance of Rs. 1000, in consideration of which he was giving a
