The Chief Secretary to Government,

Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit herewith a petition presented by Govindammal widow of Ramaswami Naidu deceased brother of Duraiswami Naidu (son of a Kandyan pensioner) referred to in G.O. NO. 627, dated 11-9-96. Petitioner requests sanction for the payment by Government of the Educational and boarding charges of her son as in the case of the grand-sons and nephews of the said Duraiswami Naidu.

2. There is some doubt whether petitioner's son is legitimate. Duraiswami Naidu and his brothers contend that he is not, as petitioner was not really married to Ramaswami Naidu, but only kept as a concubine. Petitioner denies this and her denial is supported by the evidence of her witnesses. Enquiries were made both in this District and through the Collector of Tanjore regarding the matter but nothing was elicited which enables me to arrive at a definite conclusion. The boy's age is said to be 13 years and he is reading in IVth standard in S.P.G. High school.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. S. S. S.
For Ag: Collector.
