C.No.1087.

Note.

Ahmadi Begum, the present petitioner, commuted her stipend of Rs 20 in 1890 for the ostensible purpose of purchasing landed property which was yielding a revenue of Rs 25 per mensem(vide G.O.No.49 Pol.dated 31st January 1890). She now prays for a charitable grant. Her two daughters petitioned Govt. in February 1898, claiming a compassionate grant, pleading poverty. This petition was rejected in G.O No.140, Pol., dated 24th February 1898.

2. The present petitioner has no claim on Govt. but it is probable that the story of poverty is true. It is therefore submitted that in rejecting the petition the attention of the Pay Master may be drawn in the petitioner's case in view of her being afforded relief by the Gosha Widows Fund, if her case is considered to be deserving.

Please see draft on the docket below

See Ct No 1202 from which it appears that she has had Rs 2 per mensem since 1/98.
