Mr. Weir told me this morning of this matter and I urged him to report it at once and to make the arrangements generally which he has made especially the removal of the Prison to Brookhampton.
The Esq of India are not averse to the marriage and it seems to me it will be the best course to marry the woman to Daniel Beg and let her go to Kedi with him. There is no likelihood of peace in Brookhampton between her father & her.
and it may lead in murder.

SUBJECT

Regarding Daniel Beg's escape from the Sub Jail

Daniel Bay & the death with criminality in keeping but I submit ~~that~~ ^{it} what he at all concerned to have recourse to this.

2/8/88

Note by H.E. the Govt.

Daniel Bay should be sent as soon as possible to Kodai Kanak, to morrow, if possible. From what I have heard, I do not think this last escape ^{can} have resulted in any new circumstances in the intrigue between Daniel Bay and Sher Afzal's daughter. I would not get into any action towards celebrating a marriage between the couple. Sher Afzal might be provoked into excess committing suicide.

I agree that Daniel Bay should not be criminally prosecuted.

I should like to know as soon as D. Bay is safely away from the Nilgiris. This 'request' should, in due course, be reported to the Govt. of India.

only to wait until the house where Daniel Bey had occupied before his recent incarceration.
I received a report of this matter at P. A. M. to day & at once went to the Sub. Jail & saw how Daniel Bey had effected his escape.
I then went with the Asst.
Supt & a party of Police to the house where Daniel Bey was. He & the females had shut themselves up in a small room & locked the door. I ordered the Police to arrest Daniel Bey & take him back to the

Sub. Jail.
Daniel Bey refused to open the door which had to be broken down. He was seized & taken to the Sub. Jail.
Considerable force had to be used to separate him from the females.
The party were afterwards searched & on the females were found a dagger, two knives, a razor & a chisel. Daniel Bey had no weapons on his person but a Police Constable states he saw him hand over the dagger to one of the women when the door was broken open.

As Daniel Reg is in a dangerous mood. I have directed that he be kept under close confinement until he is removed to Kodakianah. The Princess & Daniel Reg's wife I have sent back to Brookhampton to make arrangements for an extra guard over them to prevent any attempt at escape. I have also wrote to Buckley saying that circumstances have arisen which make it desirable to move Daniel Bey from here at once & proposing that he and party should start from here on Monday.

Shir Afzal is said to be greatly excited & tried to come into ooty but this was prevented.
He is now being considered whether in consequence of the events of last night the Prisoners should be allowed to accompany Daniel Ray to Kodaikmal.

After this escape it seems unlikely she will ever live happily with her father, but she is agitated with doubts as to how opposed to the management of her escape.
Daniel Ray's act last night was a bold defiance of the order he had received at night - he had received a night - he had received shed. I do not think he should be allowed to succeed in his object.

I am making inquiries as to who is responsible for Daniel Ray's escape.

I am
Yours sincerely
