GRS 26.8.99.

I have lost/sight the Madras Mail wh ref: to C.M.'s pencil note; there is no report of this Stipendiary's death. Please see, however, the ~~next~~ portions marked in the issues of the 12th & 29th ultimo. The C.M. is probably referring ~~Order~~ to the case mentioned here.

GRS. 28.8.99.

Note -

The Coroner returned a verdict of death from arsenical poisoning, in all probability self-administered". Hence the occurrence will not, in any way, affect the question of continuance. The servant died — verdict; "the result of misadventure" — he was not a stipendiary, apparently. (Madras Mail - Satr July 29/99)

The Paymaster's proposals are in accordance with prescribed rules. A draft G.O. sanctioning them is subm^d - please see separate sheet.
