Sir,

With reference to your letter No 363 dated 26th July 1899, I have the honor to inform you that A. Venkatkrishnaswami Naidu reported to the reading in the II Form of this school and is very backward in the different subjects of the Class and unless he is carefully taught at home it would be very difficult for him to secure promotion to the higher Class in January next. If a private tutor be engaged from this month till December next, he may, I think, make fair progress in study and secure minima required in the several subjects to be examined and thus get into the III Form in 1900

Honored Sir

The Petitioner A Veneakatta Naidu, a Kandian Pensioner, begs most respectfully to submit the following few lines into your honor's benign consideration and early favorable disposal.

The Government of Madras has sanctioned food allowance and the disbursement of Charges for School fees, Books & Stationery on account of his son A Veneakatasamy Naidu in its order No M 476 Political of 4th August 96.

The petitioner applied further to the Government for Private Tutor's allowance for his son in March 97 which was generously sanctioned by the Government in its order No 416. Political of the 25th June 1897.

Upon this ground, the agent and guardian of my son (A Venkatakrishnasawmy Naidu), claimed for the remuneration of Private tuition from August 96 the date of sanction for food allowance - this was rejected by the Deputy Collector in his memo dt

204

2046 dy 8.11.97. This was allowed till December 97 and after which time there was a sudden stop to it. The petitioner begs to point out that he has been quite unaware of these facts as he had to leave Madras leaving his son under the entire guardianship of his agent and guardian Mr. P.C. Veneatachellam Chetty and now as he came to know of it, he now begs fourth his requests that the real causes of the sudden stoppage to the allowance may kindly be intimated to the petitioner direct.

He further points out that like Kandian Pensioners at Tanjore are regularly and continuously paid with the same private teachers allowance till now and so he respectfully that his case may be considered well and deck and disposed of at an early date.

For this act of kindness he shall ever be praying the Almighty for Your honor's longevity and prosperity

I begte

Sir,
~~Gentlemen,~~

I have the honor to inform you that A Venkatachellam Naidu, a Kandian Pensioner has requested that the allowance for a private Tutor of his son may be paid regularly and continuously as is done in the case of Kandian pensioners at Tanjore. The tutor's allowance sanctioned in Government Order No 416, Political, dated the 25th June 1897 was paid from June to December 1897 as per Your memorandum D. Nr. 2467 of the 1st November 1897 and discontinued thereafter.

The Chief SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Political DEPARTMENT,
MADRAS.

SIR,

Referring to the Correspondence ending with G.O. No. 416 Political, dated 25th June 1897, I have the honor to submit for favor of early orders, Copy of letter from my Deputy No 964 Gl dated the 18th instant and its accompaniments, recommending that the monthly allowance of Rs 3 sanctioned in the above G.O. may be ordered to be drawn for the next four months, September to December 1899. This recommendation has my support. The letter from the Ceylon Government, embodied in that G.O, is silent about the period for which the allowance should be paid, it was however disbursed only for seven months from June to December 1897 is reading in the II Form in his school is very backward in the different subjects of the class and that unless he is carefully taught at home, it will be very difficult for him to secure promotion to the higher class in January next. He therefore suggests that a private tutor may be engaged for him from this month until December.

3. In these circumstances, I have the honor to recommend that a private tutor for the boy may be engaged for the next four months (4) from September to December 1899 on an allowance of Rs 3 a month as heretofore and that the sanction of Government thereto may be obtained at an early date.

4. Copies of the letters from the Kandian pensioner and the Headmaster of the School are enclosed.
