Ref. (none)

There was some correspondence lately (within 10 mos) in which Mr Firth was asked to inspect & get finger print impressions of Gosha females – & she replied that she would do so, though it would entail visiting many of the women again who had already been "inspected". Please put it up.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honour to State that Mrs. Firth reports the completion of her annual rounds of inspection of the Gosha Stipendiaries for 1899.

2. I solicit the sanction of Government for the disbursement to her of the usual carriage hire viz. Rs 450/- for the current year. I may here mention that the amount is available from the Budget estimate for 1899-1900 in which a provision of Rs 483/- is made under the head of "Fees for the examination of Gosha females." Mrs. Firth was last paid her carriage hire by G.O. No. 10 dated 3rd January 1899.

3. The finger prints of the Gosha female Stipendiaries were also taken by her when she visited them for inspection.

I have the honour to be
Sir
your most obedient Servant
