Chitrali State Prisoners.

Considering that "Brookhampton" is a very suitable place of residence for the — a Ootacamund, and that they should, if possible, be retained there.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From C. J. WEIR, Esq., District Magistrate, the Nilgiris, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 20th September 1899, Cur. No. 667.

I have the honour to report that as the removal of Chitralli Political detenus, Daniel Beg and party, consisting of three male prisoners and two ladies, to Kodaikānal, seemed to render it unnecessary to retain for the use of the Chitrallis still left here so large a house as "Brookhampton" at a monthly rental of Rs. 150 per mensem, I asked Mr. Parsons if he would consent to accept a lower rent therefor.

2. In reply Mr. Parsons states that he is not prepared to consent to any alteration of the terms of the lease under which "Brookhampton" is held; the tenancy, I may add, cannot be terminated under the present lease till the middle of August 1900.

3. Mr. Parsons was again asked if he would be willing to accept a lower rent after August 1900. Mr. Parsons replied that he would be prepared to accept a lower rent on a lease for five years certain but for no shorter term and there were also certain provisions of the present lease which he wished should be modified. Mr. Parsons required more power over the use of the large park, which is an appurtenance to the house.

4. I pointed out to Mr. Parsons that Government may not be inclined to take the house on a five years' lease as there must always be some doubt as to the period the Chitrallis will remain here and required him to state the lowest rent he would accept on the present terms as to lease, viz., an annual lease terminable on notice given one month before expiration of the year, informing him also that I had the offer of a suitable house for the rent of Rs. 80 suggested to him.

5. Mr. Parsons states in reply that he is not willing to enter into a new lease for "Brookhampton" for any term less than five years.

6. I have therefore the honour to lay the matter before Government and to enquire what their wishes are in the matter.

7. I may mention that Mr. Esuff Sait, a copy of whose offer I attach, agrees to build within three months a house in a secluded place (Westward Ho's compound) affording the required accommodation and makes no terms as to the period of lease. He asks only for a rent of Rs. 80 per mensem.

ORDER—No. 686, Political, dated 11th October 1899.

The Government considers that "Brookhampton" is a very suitable place of residence for the Chitralli detenus and that they should, if possible, be retained there.
