Note for the C.S.

With reference to the question of whether the commuted value of this pension should be deposited in the Savings Bank or whether the amount shd be invested in the purchase of Pro Notes for the minor's benefit, it is subm[d] that the Paymaster's proposal is based on the provisions of GO No 60 Pol of 30.1.94 which approved of a proposal from the Ag that pensions due to minors shd be deposited, monthly, in the Savings Bank & pro-notes purchased at convenient intervals, through the A G's office. In the present case, the amount being a final disposal of the pension, the Paymaster's proposal appears to be in accordance with the Orders quoted, though deposit of the amt in the Savings Bank would, it is subm[d], in the case of so small a sum, answer all purposes & possibly be for the better interests, in the long run, of the minor.

Perhaps a para might be added to the order asking the AG's views as to whether, for small commutation amts, the Savings Bank would not be a better medium for investment than Pro Notes.?
