17 AUG 1899
COLLECTOR & MAGISTRATE

I beg to bring the following circumstances to your kind consideration.

On the 29th of October 1865, in my girlhood, I was married to V. Raj. Narayana Sani Jodan Row Sahel of a poor family of Subkottai in Idumbakonam Taluk and a maternal descendant of Tuljaji, a former Rajah of Bangalore.

For my marriage Government sanctioned a sum of Rs 3000 and conducted the same through their representative the then Government Agent.

In 1867 I and my husband were desired by the then Government Agent to reside in the upstairs mansion of our L. Kell Mangalwilas situated in the South Main Street, Bangalore, referred to in paragraphs

11 to 13 in the Report, No 930 of the 26th March 1860, from Mr W. D. Phillips, the then Commissioner of Tanjore, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Since then we (I and my husband) have been living in that mansion on my present monthly pension of Rs 35, my annual share of the mesne profits of our landed estate and my allowance, Rs 50 per mensem, which is being paid to me by my mother, M. Veeravalli Ammal, besides other allowances she has been giving on all occasions of periodical feasts and ceremonies.

I had a son, named Vijia Suckharam Jodan Rao Sahel, born in 1872, to whom Putmaboyi Amnee, daughter of Raj Vijia Sutanandaji Sahel, eldest of the natural sons of the late Rajah, was given in marriage which took place on the 19th August 1886 and for which Government granted Rs 2000, to wit, Rs 1000 to the said Sahel's daughter and Rs 1000 to my son. In addition to the said Government grant my mother also gave us Rs 2000 for the purpose. Thus Rs 4000 were expended for the marriage.

The said my dear son, it is to be regretted, died of cholera, on the 18th of March 1895, without any issue.

Since

(5)
Since his demise, owing to corroding cares, my health has failed, I have become a prey to diseases and I have been since of late despairing of ever regaining my health. I think I will expire before long.

Now the fact that, after my demise, there is no one to help my aged husband and my widowed daughter-in-law grieves me much. My mental pain on this account is more than my physical pain spoken of above.

I therefore request that you will be kind enough to submit my case to Government under whose patronage I have been placed and arrange to place in my stead, my husband and my daughter-in-law under the auspices of Government.

I have no other descendants than the said two persons.

I am, Sir, ever
Yours obediently
