Note

This is a petition from a young Carnatic descendant requesting that Govt will permit him to take up a Govt appointment wh is offered to him - although he was, in 1892 convicted by a P. M. Magistrate of making & using a false document with intent to commit fraud. Petitioner contends that he was, at the time, only 14 years of age & that, had the Magistrate acted properly, he would have been sent to a Reformatory & thus escaped the stigma which rests upon him through having been to jail. He pleads "high descent" as a ground for special consideration.

2. The facts are as follows -

In Decr/98 the petn applied to the Edl Dept for exemption from the exams necessary for entering Govt service, but said nothing about his conviction six years before. His case was referred by Edl to the Paymaster, Carnatic Districts, for report. That officer reported that the petn's brothers had been exempted & that as petn was the last of them he saw no objection to his exemption though he, personally, objected altogether to such exemptions. The Edl Dept exempted him -

3. On the strength of this exemption the petn applied to the Salt Dept for a post ^{in June last} was offered one as Asst Sub Inspector in Nandyal Circle. He also applied to the Collector of Malabar who last month offered him an Asst appointment on Rs 15 in his office - He (petn) has held an appointment as luggage Clerk in the Madras Railway from Novr/93 to March last & attaches to his petn a certificate of good character which states that he leaves at his own request to better his position. A letter from "Rev J. B. Peter" supporting his character forms, also, an enclosure -

4. It is subm^d that the petitioner has succeeded in getting his exemption under false pretences & that the same must be said of the appointments of which he has obtained the offer. The straight-forward course would have been to make this application first & then, if successful, to have sought a post. His failure to make known all the facts of the case disqualifies him, now, to consideration in the way he desires. It is further subm^d that the Paymaster's office has been at fault in recommending to Govt one of whom very little could have been enquired beforehand & that the present Paymaster's attention should be called to the matter with a view to greater caution in the future.

the Edl authorities certainly did not glean from it the true facts

H.L. The Govt

There is certainly nothing to show that this man brought forward the facts of his case when applying for Exemption.
But if he wished to discuss why then he bring them forward now? He either means well

It is more than ordinary a deep. Giving him the benefit of the doubt and having regard to the fact that he was a very young boy when convicted & has since been well behaved. I think Govt might say that if on his representing the facts to the officers who have offered him employment they still are willing to employ him Govt will raise no objection.
