Investment of the bonuses and stipends of minor Carnatic Stipendiaries.

---IV XXV

G. Nos. 1569 & 1432.

Po.No.757 Jdl. 17.11.99.

NOTE FOR THE Chief Secretary.

These papers deal with the question of the investment of the bonuses and stipends of minor Carnatic stipendiaries. The question is raised in connection with G.O.No.690, Political, dated 12th October 1899, where, although approving the proposal of the Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, to invest the bonus due to the minor Rahman Hussain in the purchase of Govt. securities, the Chief Secretary asked why the amount should not be deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank. It is submitted that the orders of Government regarding the investment of bonuses payable to minors prescribe only one course ~~in the matter of the investment of bonuses~~ viz. that the amount should be invested in the purchase of Government securities; although in the case of the investment of ~~moieties of~~ stipends of minors, the Paymaster is permitted to draw moieties thereof and lodge them in the Madras Savings Bank and when

Please see fo. No 607, Pol. 26.8.98 XV

Please see fo. No 68, Pol, 30.1.94. X

convenient invest them in the purchase of Govt. pro notes. G.O.No.607, Political, dated 26th August 1898, would appear to deal with the case of bonuses, G.O. No. 60, dated 30th January 1894, appertaining to cases of regular stipends. The Paymaster's proposals as regards Rahman Hussain's bonus were in accordance with G.O.No.607, Political, dated 26th August 1898 and were therefore approved. In this connection attention is invited to C.No.1452 which is an exactly similar case. Submitted therefore that the Paymaster's proposals in this case also may be sanctioned. It is desirable, however, in the interests of the minors themselves, that the amount of bonuses should be dealt with in such a manner as will prove most profitable to the minors. The Post Office Savings Bank pays 3½ % interest and there would not be much difference whether the money is deposited in the Savings Bank or in the purchase of Govt. paper, but the Accountant-General, it is submitted, may be asked to give his opinion on this point.

2. In connection with the question of the investment of portions of the stipends of minors, the procedure regarding which is prescribed in G.O.No. 60, Political, dated 30th January 1894, attention is invited to C.No. 1569. The Paymaster here proposes that one half of the minor Rahmat-un-nissa's pension should be deposited in the Post Office

Office Savings Bank. It will be seen from the original of the G.O. last quoted that the question as to whether the Paymaster was able to make deposits in the Savings Bank on behalf of minors, whose official guardian he was, was raised at the time and that Govt. then received an assurance from the Accountant-General that this objection applied only to the Post Office Savings Bank and not to the Presidency Savings Bank. As however the latter bank has been abolished and its work transferred to the Post Office Savings Bank, it is submitted that the Paymaster is precluded from opening accounts in the Savings Bank on behalf of minors whose official guardian he is, and therefore that G.O. No 60, Pol, dt 30.1.94 needs revision however,

3. As regards C.No. 1569, referred to in the beginning of para. 2 it is submitted that, as the Paymaster cannot himself open an account on the minor's behalf, the minor herself or her guardian will open the account, the Paymaster's request that the money should pass through his office being intended to ensure that the investment is made regularly caution against possible fraud. His proposals may, therefore, it is subt, be sanctioned.
