Go. Rec 88, Pol, 30.3.99.

With reference to para 2 of Government Order No. 173 Political dated 7th March 98 and in continuation of my letter R. No. 19/Ag. of 98 dated 22nd March 99, I have the honour to report on 15 out of the 17 individuals - (referred to in the Government Order) who are residents of the Ratnagiri District, Bombay Presidency. The Col-lector of Sattara District has not yet replied to the reference regarding the remaining 2 individuals in spite of a reminder. Another reminder has now been sent to him.

2. Columns 4, 5 and 6 of the enclosed statement A have been filled up with reference to the information furnish-ed by the Collector of Ratnagiri and column 7 shows my recommendations with grounds.

3. I also enclose another list B of petitions since received, in consequence of the enquiries instituted. Of the 18 persons named therein, the case of No. 13 is under enquiry in Sattara District, Bombay Presidency, and No. 14 is identical with No. 9. The remaining 16 indivi-duals are new applicants. I made no enquiries about them, on the presumption that if they had had valid -- claims they would have applied for pensions earlier. I

C.No. 1415

Claims to pensions of certain relatives residing in the Bombay Presidency of Her late Highness M. Anasumba Bai.

NOTE FOR THE

With this letter No 15 dated the 8th February 1898, the Govt Agent, Tanjore, submitted a statement showing the claims to pensions of certain relatives of Her late Highness M. Anasumba Bai Sahiba, of Tanjore, who died on the 30th Septr 1895; and Govt, in passing orders in the matter, directed that further enquiries should be made regarding ~~#~~ seventeen of these claimants said to be living in the Bombay Presidency. The present current contains the Govt Agent's report with reference to ~~##~~ fifteen of these, no information regarding the other two, who reside in the Sattara District, having yet been received from the Collector of Sattara.

Recd in G.O. No 173, Pol, dt 7.3.98.

Recorded in G.O. No 700, Pol, dt 23.10.98.

(11)

Attention is solicited to the note in the last column of the statement A appended to the Govt.
Agent's letter No 706 dated 19.10.99.
It is subd that, if the Govt Agent's recommendations are approved, the pensions should be paid with ~~question as to the date, from which~~ ~~effect from which the pensions are~~ effect from the 1st Octo: 1895
~~to be paid, will have to be considered~~.
as in ~~Proceedings~~ G.O. No 455, Pol, dt 4.7.98., where it was decided that ~~the pensions~~ in the case of Kasi Bai & two others — relatives of the late Rani — that arrears of pension were to be paid with effect from the 1st Octo: 95, the date following that of the death of ~~the H.H.~~ the Rani.

3) The Govt Agent forwards another
list (B) of persons who have sent ~~him~~ petitions to him since the institution of the enquiries ~~as~~ regarding the relatives in the Bombay Presidency. He has not investigated their claims on the presumption that, if valid, the petrs would have applied earlier for pensions. Subd that the Govt Agent's action ~~might~~ may be approved.
