CPO 1491 and 1500

Applicants for copies of a certain document require for the purpose of a suit on the file of the H. Court.

NOTE FOR THE C.S.

These current are application for certified copies of the Parvava creating the office of Muttavalli in respect of a certain mosque at Saidapet — a document, in the possession of the Paymaster, Carnatic Shpendo, which is required ^{in connection with} for a suit now on the file of the High Court. The persons applying for copies are the 1st respondent and the oakil of the 2nd response in the above case. It is submitted that Govt, as a rule, refuses to comply with these requests in the absence of a certificate from the court that the document is wanted in connection with a suit, but a departure ^{from the usual practice}, might, it is thought, be made in the present instance in view of the fact that one Ghulam Mahavi Ali was granted a copy of the same document for the purposes of the same suit. There is, therefore, no doubt as to the genuineness of the request and also, it is not, no necessity to insist on a certificate from the court.
