Amni of Mangalamilas.

Sir,

Both numbered 65
 & dated 28 Oct 1877. With reference to your letters noted in the margin we beg to inform you that if we are compelled to have our allowances commuted into gratuities we are afraid that the amount of the commutation of pensions will, instead of affording us a permanent means of livelihood, simply help us towards liquidating our family debts and will be squandered away uselessly and that that we will be left destitute again.

We therefore pray that you will be kind enough to arrange for giving over the said allowances to us monthly and oblige.

Tanjore
Dated 6 November 99

We beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department,
M A D R A S.

Sir,

A With reference to Government Order No. 692 Pol. - dated 12th October 99 calling on me to report the amount of bonus payable to Ry. Narayanasami Jathow Row Saheb and Padma Boi ~~Sakhi~~ Ammani, I have the honour to forward herewith for the orders of Government their joint petition dated 6th November 99 praying that, in the circumstances stated therein, the pensions now granted to them may not be commuted.

2. It is plain that the payment of a lump sum by way of commutation will be of no practical benefit to either of the petitioners and I therefore ~~venture~~ venture to recommend their request for the favourable consideration of Government with reference to G.O. No. ~~115 Pol. dated 12th~~ ^{115 Pol. dated 15.2.98} ~~October 99.~~

B 3. The male pensioner is a son-in-law of the late Raja by one of his illegitimate daughters, and the female pensioner is the Raja's grand daughter, being the daughter of his eldest illegitimate son.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
