To
The Post Master General
Madras

Sir

I have the honor to report for your information that the Mail despatched from Bellary to Bannoor on the 9th instant, was stopped near the Village Kartigee, by a gang of Robbers, who beat the Runner severely, and stripped him of his clothes, but did not in any way interfere with the bags or its contents.

The occurrence has been reported to the Deputy Commissioner Raichore Doab, for enquiry, and with the request that stringent measures may be taken for the prevention of future robberies.
