No 150

Madras
Postmaster General's Office
20 January 1887

To The Director General of the Post Office in India

Sir,
I have the honor to append for your information extract from the Diary of the Inspecting Postmaster of the Pondicherry Division dated 11th January 1887 re notifying that the Northern Mail was attacked by robbers near the salt water inlet on the 2nd Instant.

The Overseer has made a direct report to me to the effect that a 2nd attack was made at the same place on the 10th idem, when the runners were severely beaten but succeeded in getting away with the mail from the robbers.

I have myself addressed the Magistrate of Chengalput and Pellore on the subject and shall forward a transcript of this communication to the local Government.

Signed / R. H. Williamson

Extract from a diary from the Inspecting Postmaster's Cuddalore Division dated 17th
January 1858.

Overseer Peruvengadam reports that robbers attacked the mail at 2 in the morning of the 6th Instant near the Salt Works Embankment at the limits of Nellore and Chingleput districts, but no injury was done to the mail. The Collector has been written to adopt necessary measures to prevent a similar occurrence.
