The Civil Auditor's Administration Report for the Official Year 1857-58.

The Preaudit System. The Preaudit System has now been in force for 2 years, and its operation and results have been of a satisfactory nature.

The Unconvenanted Absentee Rules. The provisions of the Absentee Rules for the Unconvenanted Service during this year have been practically extended to the whole of the Unconvenanted Service. The Rules when framed were intended to apply only to those Members of this branch of the Service, whose salaries exceed Rs. 100, but as the Supreme Government has declared the whole of that body as coming within the spirit, although not within the letter of those Rules, the grant of leave to every Unconvenanted Servant is regulated as far as practicable, by those Rules. The whole subject of the claims of the Unconvenanted Servants to leave of absence and the terms of the grant of leaves to them, has occupied the attention of Government, who have directed that Monthly Leave Statements should be submitted to this Office, with their Abstracts for the purpose of scrutiny and check, and to prevent abuses of their orders on this subject.
