but passed a course

Disfranchisement — In a former order of the Board of Health, 1894, it was ordered that the Board of Health should to make an investigation, in which he had been compelled to confer a situation in his office on an un-passed candidate, those who had passed having declined to accept the appointment owing to the smallness of the salary and solicited instructions whether, in similar cases, an unpassed candidate might not, as a general rule, be appointed, and whether the notification of the 18th August, published in page 354 of the Fort St George Gazette, is applicable to substitutes employed to act for clerks while on leave for a few days on half pay, and when
