proper care either at Malta or Alexandria

On the last occasion owing to some accident which happened to the mails, all the iron boxes were opened at Malta, and their contents were put into wooden cases and sent to Madras.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.

Reports that the fruit boxes see? per "Simla" did not on receipt have been any outside appearance of having been wetted in their transit from the Steamer to the beach. but supposes that they were not landed with proper care either at Muller or Alexandria.
