SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1860.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 1.—1860.

CHARLES EDMUND WILKINSON.

An Ordinance to prevent the overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers in the Gulf of Manaar and Palk's Straits.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to prevent the overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers in the Gulf of Manaar and Palk's Straits: and whereas the Ordinance No. 13 of 1857 was passed for effecting the above purpose, which said Ordinance has expired, and the Ordinance No. 8 of 1853 has thereby become revived. IT IS ENACTED BY THE GOVERNOR OF CEYLON, by and with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Commencement and duration.

1. THIS Ordinance shall come into operation from the day of the passing thereof.

Repeal.

2. THE Ordinance No. 8 of 1853, intituled, "To regulate the number of passengers on board of vessels proceeding from Ceylon to certain parts of the East Indies," is hereby repealed.

Interpretation.

3. FOR the purposes of this Ordinance, the word "Vessel" shall not apply to any Vessel propelled partly or wholly by steam.

Number of passengers to be carried in unlicensed vessels.

4. NO vessel shall carry passengers from any port or place in Ceylon, to any port or place in India in the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Straits, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of such vessel, without a license.

in licensed vessels.

5. NO Vessel shall be licensed to carry passengers as aforesaid, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every ton of burden, nor unless the vessel has space on a deck or platform, under hatches, reserved for the accommodation of the passengers, in the proportion of six superficial feet for every passenger, with not less than five feet clear between the upper deck, and the lower deck or platform; except a vessel proceeding in ballast, which may be licensed to carry a number of passengers not exceeding the proportion of two and a half to every ton of her burden, provided that the whole of the space usually allotted for cargo, and not occupied by ballast, be kept for the accommodation of the passengers, and for storing the provisions and water for their use; and that the space left clear for the accommodation of the passengers on the deck or decks of the vessel, be not less than four superficial feet for each passenger.

Penalty on Master of unlicensed vessel.

6. THE Master or Tindal of any vessel which shall carry passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid, without a license, in a proportion exceeding that laid down in the 4th section of this Ordinance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Two pounds for each passenger in excess of such proportion.

Penalty on Master of licensed vessel.

7. THE Master or Tindal of any licensed vessel which shall carry on any such voyage a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, or in which the accommodation therein required shall not be afforded, or who shall knowingly receive or allow to come on board such vessel, a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, intending to proceed to sea with such passengers on any such voyage, shall be liable, for any such offence, to a fine not exceeding Two pounds for each passenger in excess of such number, or for each passenger who is not provided with accommodation agreeably to the license.

Government, to appoint ports for shipment of passengers, when the number of passengers to be carried is greater than one to every four tons of burden.

8. PASSENGERS in a greater number than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of any vessel, shall not be shipped from Ceylon for any port or place in India in the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Straits, except from such ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor, by an Order published in the Government Gazette; and the Master or Tindal of any vessel who shall take on board passengers for such voyage from any other port or place in a greater proportion to the burden of the vessel than is above mentioned, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Two pounds for each passenger embarked.

Grant of license to vessels.

9. IT shall be at the discretion of the Collectors of Customs for the ports appointed for shipping passengers, or such other persons as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, to grant licenses to vessels under this Ordinance. The license shall describe the vessel, her tonnage and rig, the number of her boats, anchors, and cables; also, the name of the owner, and of the Master or Tindal, and the number of the Crew; and shall specify the number of passengers she may carry, and the space to be assigned for their accommodation. Provided, if any doubts shall arise whether any vessel about to proceed with passengers as aforesaid, is seaworthy, so as to be fit for her intended voyage, and such doubts shall not be removed to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs at the Port from which such vessel is to be cleared out, it shall be lawful for such Collector to cause such vessel to be surveyed by such person as shall be appointed by the Governor for that purpose, and if it shall be reported by such person, that such vessel is not seaworthy with reference to such voyage, such vessel shall not be cleared out, until such vessel shall have been rendered seaworthy.

Supply of provisions on board passenger vessels plying to and from Ceylon, &c.

10. THE Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers from any Port in Ceylon to any port or place in India in the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Straits, who shall proceed on any such voyage without having laid in a supply of water and provisions for the Passengers, according to a scale to be fixed by the Collector of Customs for such Port, or such other person as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, and which shall be hung up at the Custom House of the Port, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Two pounds.

List of Passengers to be signed by Master.

Additional passengers.

Penalty for impeding entry or inspection.

Penalty on landing Passenger at a place other than at which he has contracted to land.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

Adjudication of offences and recovery of penalties.

Sum ordered to be paid leviable by distress on Vessel.

Application of penalties.

11. THE Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers as hereinbefore provided, shall sign and deliver, in duplicate, to the principal Officer of Customs at the place of embarkation, or such other person as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, a list, according to the Form annexed to this Ordinance, of all passengers to be conveyed in such vessel; and such Officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of the same, and that the number of passengers authorized is not exceeded, shall countersign and return one such list to the Master or Tindal, to be produced to the proper Officer at the Port to which the vessel is bound; and should any additional passengers engage to proceed by such vessel after such list has been so countersigned, the Master or Tindal may insert their number in the original list, obtaining the signature of the Controlling Officer as before. The Officer in charge of the Customs may withhold the Port Clearance till this provision is complied with.

12. THE principal Officer in charge of the Customs at the Port of embarkation, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty, at all times, to enter and inspect any passenger vessel, and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein, and to muster the passengers and crew, and whoever impedes such entry, inspection or muster, or refuses to allow the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five pounds.

13. IF any passenger in any vessel shall be landed at any Port or place, other than the Port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the Sea, or other unavoidable accident, the Master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds.

14. NOTHING in this Ordinance contained shall take away or abridge any right of action, which may accrue to any Passenger, or to any other person in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the Master or Owner of the vessel or his Agent.

15. ANY offence against this Ordinance, though the same may be beyond the jurisdiction of a Police Court, by reason of the amount of punishment, to which the offender is liable, shall and may nevertheless be inquired into, tried, and punished by the Police Court of the District in which the offence was committed, wholly, or in part, or where the offender is found. And any fine imposed on the Master or Tindal of any Vessel, for a breach of this Ordinance, may be recovered from the owner of such Vessel or from his Agent. And if the person directed to pay any penalty is the Master or Tindal of a Vessel, and the same is not paid at the time, and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Court ordering such payment, may, in addition to the means prescribed by law, for enforcing payment, direct, by warrant, the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said Vessel, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

16. ANY Police Magistrate imposing any penalties under this Ordinance may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

REGULATIONS

Made by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, under the authority of Ordinance No. 13 of 1859, intituled, "An Ordinance to amend the Law of Marriage in the Kandyan Provinces."

1. EACH Registrar shall give personal security, by bond or otherwise, to the amount of Fifty Pounds, together with two sureties in Twenty-five Pounds each, for the due and faithful discharge of his duties, and for the full delivery of all books, papers, and other documents belonging to the Registry, on the death, dismissal, or resignation of the Registrar; which said bond shall also bind the heirs, executors, and administrators of the parties thereto.
2. NO Registrar shall quit his District without report to the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent, nor be absent more than Three days without the sanction of one of those Officers.
3. IF from sickness, or other sufficient cause, the Registrar is unable to register a Marriage on the day fixed for that purpose, he shall give timely notice to the parties.
4. WHEN the parties whose Marriage is to be registered are residents of two different Districts, the Registrar by whom the Marriage is intended to be solemnized, shall require a Certificate from the Registrar of the other District, that the notice of Marriage was duly published in his District, and that there exists, so far as he is aware, no objection to the Marriage; and the Registrar from whom such Certificate is demanded shall forthwith furnish the same.
5. NO erasure shall, on any account, be made in any Register Book, Copy of Register, Certificate of Entry, or other document. Should any correction be required, it shall be made in ink and initialed by the Registrar.
6. IF a Registrar shall be attacked with any serious illness which may incapacitate him from performing his duties for a prolonged period, he shall give, or cause to be given, immediate notice thereof to the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent, in order that a substitute may be appointed.
7. With regard to Fees—
THE Registrar shall be entitled to demand the sum of Three shillings for each Marriage solemnized by him; and the sum of Two shillings for every copy of an entry of Marriage, save and except the copies of entry of Marriage furnished to each of the parties to a Marriage under Section 17th of the said Ordinance, which last mentioned copies, together with the Certificate required by that Section, shall be furnished without any fee.

In the Name of Her Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

ORDER

By His Excellency the Hon'ble Colonel CHARLES EDMUND WILKINSON, R. E., Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon, with the Dependencies thereof.
CHARLES EDMUND WILKINSON.

WHEREAS by Ordinance No. 1 of 1860, intituled "An Ordinance to prevent the overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers in the Gulf of Manaar and Palk's Straits," it is amongst other things enacted, that passengers in a greater number than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of any vessel, shall not be shipped from Ceylon, for any port or place in India, in the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Straits; except from such ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor, by an Order published in the Government Gazette.

Now therefore, it is hereby appointed and ordered by the said Governor, that the ports which such passengers as aforesaid may be shipped from, for any port or place in the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Straits, shall be as follows:—that is to say,

In the Western and North-Western Provinces, the Ports of Colombo, Pantura, Caltura, Barbery, Negombo, and Calpentin.

In the Southern Province, the Ports of Galle, Dodandowe, Ballepittymodere, Belligam, Gindural, and Hambantotte.

In the Northern Province, the Ports of Jaffna, Point Pedro, Cayla, Manaar, Tallemanaar, and Kangesantorre.

In the Eastern Province, the Ports of Trincomalie and Batticaloa.

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Ordinance, that if any doubts shall arise whether any vessel about to proceed with passengers as aforesaid, is sea worthy, so as to be fit for her intended voyage, and such doubts shall not be removed to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs at the Port from which such vessel is to be cleared out, it shall be lawful for such Collector to cause such vessel to be surveyed by such person as shall be appointed by the Governor for that purpose.

Now therefore, it is hereby Ordered by the said Governor, that where there is a Master Attendant at any one of the above named Ports, the Master Attendant at that Port shall be the person to survey such vessels as aforesaid, and if there be no Master Attendant at any one of the abovenamed Ports, the Collector of Customs at such last mentioned Port shall be the person to survey vessels as aforesaid.

Given at Colombo, in the Island of Ceylon, this Twenty-ninth day of September, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. C. GIBSON,

Actg. Col. Secy.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

ORDER BY THE GOVERNMENT.

WHEREAS by Ordinance No. 1 of 1839, intituled "To amend the Laws relative to Fiscals and their Officers," it is amongst other things enacted, that the party or parties at whose suit any one or more persons shall be detained in prison on Mesne process, or in execution, shall make an allowance in money, for the maintenance of such person so detained, at the rates to be fixed by order of the Government from time to time, as occasion shall require:

AND whereas the present maintenance allowed to such Civil prisoners as aforesaid, is insufficient for their support:

NOW therefore, it is hereby Ordered by His Excellency COLONEL CHARLES EDMUND WILKINSON, R. E., Lieutenant-Governor, with the consent and advice of the Executive Council, that the following shall be the several rates of allowance to Civil prisoners, any prior order to the contrary notwithstanding, that is to say:—

For a native of Ceylon, or of India Six-pence.

For a Burgher or a person descended from an European by a native Nine-pence.

For an European, or a person born of European parents One shilling.

Given under Our Hand and Seal at Colombo, this Twenty-ninth day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and sixty.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. C. GIBSON,

Actg. Col. Secy.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR has been pleased to appoint J. W. JONES, Esq., to act as Landing and Tide Surveyor at Galle.—
