Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, pointing out an inaccuracy in my statement to Government regarding your house at Honore, which you think might possibly hereafter impugn your veracity.

I find on reference to the Correspondence, that under the expressions "It cost me Rupees 3500" commencing a para which follows a statement as to your having bought the house in question from Dr. Pritchard, I wrote in allusion to the house, "Mr. Saldanha the Principal Sudra here is willing to give Mr. Robinson the sum paid for it by the latter to Dr. Pritchard."

My inference was as before, but it appears that whilst Rupees 3500 was the sum paid to Dr. Pritchard, Rupees 2000 were subsequently expended in rendering the house habitable; and that in stating that it cost you Rs 3500, you included the above expenditure.

It does not appear that the actual facts are such as to be likely to have any influence on the decision of Government, but I shall forward a copy of this letter to the Chief Secretary, as it is desirable that the transaction should be accurately described.

Sir,
I have the honor to forward for information of Government, transcript of a letter addressed by me to Mr. J. D. Robinson in reply to a communication from him, pointing out an inaccuracy in my statement to Government regarding his name at Ramore which he fears may possibly impugn his sincerity.

2 Though the point in question is not one of any importance, it is necessary that Government should be in possession of the actual facts of the case, which my letter to Mr. Robinson correctly describes, whilst it explains both the nature and cause of the inaccuracy he alludes to.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
