Honorable
Capt. R. M. MacDonald
Inspector of Schools
Hon. J. A. McIntosh, Esq.
Director of the Bureau of Education

Madam

I have the honor in forwarding the accompanying medical certificate to solicit leave to proceed to the residence with a view to obtaining a final medical certificate to enable me to return to Europe for 18 months under the arm-furlough regulations.

In the certificate originally given me, and which is marked "cancelled" I was recommended to proceed to this station with a view to obtaining a final medical certificate here, but it was returned as informal by the Superior Medical Surgeon on the ground that the rules and forms prescribed for officers in Civil employ were applicable to my case and a fresh certificate called for in the form.

form now submitted, which is stated to be the correct form. I think it necessary to mention this as I observe that in this new certificate my rank, regiment and official appellations are omitted and that I am immediately submitted.

I have the honor to be
