No. 429

Fort Saint George
Accountants Office
6th February 1860.

From
The Accountant General
To The Chief Secretary to Government
Public Department

Sir,

In reply to the enquiries in the Circular, No. 45, dated 12th ultimo, I have the honour to state, as regards the 1st Query, that there are 32 Pems attached to the Establishment, as follows, Viz:

1. Duffadar at Rs. 14

1. Head Pemo at Rs. 10

13 Pemo at Rs. 7

17 Pemo at Rs. 6 and that there are 8 Gollaks, Viz:

1. Head Gollak at Rs. 14

1. Deputy Gollak at Rs. 10

6 Gollaks at Rs. 7

As regards the 2nd Query, I have had all the Pemo and Gollaks mustered, and in my opinion there are none

none who are unfit for duty, the majority are young men.

As regards your

3^d Query, I am not of opinion that the more extended employment of the Post Office, and the multiplication of deliveries, will make any appreciable difference in the work of these servants, and am inclined to doubt whether any amount of deliveries will enable me to diminish the number of persons in their work.

As regards your

4th Query, I have the honor to observe that a reclassification of the work of the department has recently been made, which will I expect have the effect of reducing the interdepartmental business of the Office; until this reclassification has had a trial, and got into working order, it will obviously be unwise to make any alterations. It is at all times inadvisable to have a large Office like this without a sufficient number of messengers, as in such a case clerks and writers upon higher salaries expend their time in menial work to the prejudice of the discipline of the Office and the cost of the the Public service. In the number of Gollaks I do not think any reduction can be made, either now or hereafter, - one half of them are on duty all night, the others all day, and their duties are distinct from those of the Peons. Probably some reduction in the number of the latter may be effected, after a while, and I shall meet the views of the members of Government on the subject.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Yours
Jas. Depue.

Your obedient servant

Wm. M. M. M.
