Per. & Hind. Translat. office

Fort Saint George

4th October 1860 - 13/

From,

Surgeon Major Edward Palfour
Pracan and Shikar Translator to Government
Fort Saint George

J. Gycroft Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government

10

I have the honor to report for the information of Government, that the office of writer attached to the office of the Pers. and Hind. Translator to Government became vacant in July last. The vacancy was advertised in the Fort Saint George Gazette, but receiving no application from papered candidates I employed (on the 1st September last), Mir Gholam Asad-Ullah, as a temporary writer.

2 The order of Government contained in Notification dated 26th March 1859 and published in the Port Saint George Gazette of the 29th of the same month prohibits the employment of persons who have not passed the Uncovenanted Service examination for a period greater than one month. I therefore solicit

A vertical strip of a book cover, showing a dark, textured background with a lighter, textured border. The texture appears to be a fine, woven fabric or a similar material. The strip is oriented vertically, with the top edge on the left and the bottom edge on the right. The lighting is even, highlighting the texture of the material.
