From,

C. F. Chamier Esq^r

Register to the Court of Sadar Adalat.

To,

J. Pycroft Esq^r

Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

I have the honor to return the following answers to the questions contained in the Proceedings of Government dated the 12th instant:

1st There are attached to this Court
1. Jemadar on Rupees 17. 8. .., 1 Duffadar on Rupees 10. 8. .., 24 Dalayets on Rupees 7 each, and 8 Peons on Rupees 6 each.

2nd All are fit for duty. One, however,
by reason of old age, is not competent to undertake any other duty than that of guarding the Court House.

3rd I am not in the habit of sending a
Peon

Person to receive the official Letters at the Post office, and the Person who takes these despatched, merely puts them into the nearest Receiving Office. The work of circulating judicial papers could not of course be done through the Post. The Postal Department could not, therefore, be made use of for the purpose of diminishing the work of the Person.

4th. From the time of my appointment as Registrar, I have never had persons at my private residence, and I believe Mr. Fullerton also, does not require their attendance at his house. Each Puisne Judge has three persons, and the Honorable the Chief Judge one, on duty at his residence; one assists in the Record room; one goes to and from the Press, with papers sent to be printed; the Duffaden and 6 persons on guard the house day and night; and the remaining 14 perform the duties of the Court, carrying the papers sent in circulation, attending upon the Registrar, Deputy Registrar, and at least one Judge sitting in chambers, preserving order in Court, &c.

It scarcely ever happens that there are not some of the Persons absent from sickness or other causes. I do not think, therefore, that any of the Persons could be dispensed with, without rendering it difficult and inconvenient to carry out the obligations of the Court satisfactorily and in with despatch.

Sadar Adalat,
Registrar's Office,
26 January 1860.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. Servant,

C. J. Chamier.
Registrar.
