Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge Proceedings of Government of the 12th instant N^o 45 received on 23rd, and in obedience thereto to state that the number of Peons 4⁰⁰ in my office is Bavan Ling	Head Peon	Rupes 10 ⁰⁰	ten as noted in the margin, that Appavoo	Peon	" 7	they all have ample employment

Sundasawmy	"	" 7	and could not without much Parthasarthy	"	" 7	inconvenience be spared. The Saschellum	"	" 7	head peon attends in the office
Streenevapen	"	" 7	to bear messages between myself
Sooresban	"	" 7	and my establishment. One Yagambrin	"	" 7	has the duty of registering all letters passing in Appoo	"	" 7	and out of the office, and another is stationed Yellapen	Cooly	" 6	at my house as a messenger, each taking his turn in this duty. The remainder are employed in conveying letters to different departments.

departments, except one who has charge of the office during the night and out of business hours.

2 The following is a categorical reply to the questions in the Circular.

establishment 7.10 above records

2^d They are all fit for duty.

3rd The Post Office is employed when time is not an object and the distance renders it inconvenient to spare a person. The business of my office would not admit the general use of the Post for the transmission of Presidency letters, which frequently number 30 to 40 a day.

4th A smaller number would suffice without very great inconvenience. Even at present it is frequently found necessary to employ volunteers, although scrupulous care is taken that no person is employed in other than his legitimate duties.
