Commissary General's Office,
Madras 31st January 1860.
N^o 26

From
The Commissary General,
To
The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir,

12th Jan. 1860.

Adverting to the order of Government N^o 45. as per date in the margin, I have the honor to forward a list of Peons attached to the Current and Executive Branches of the Commissary General's Office and to state that they are all fit for duty and fully employed upon the Service for which they are engaged.

2 Peons are seldom, if ever, sent with letters to a distance in the course of the day, but after their labour at the Office and there is over some of them are entrusted with Packets to be delivered at the Post Office for the Magistrate, or directed to deliver personally such letters as are addressed to the Authorities within a circuit of 2 Miles of the Office.

3 Under these circumstances, it does not appear expedient to reduce the present Number of Peons in the Establishment.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant.
A. H. G. Colmel.
Commissary General.
