To J. Percraft Esq.
 Chief Secretary to Government
 Madras

Sir,
 I beg to acknowledge the communication of Government No. 100, dated the 5th Instant, stating that my request to be allowed to be exempted from passing the Civil Service Examined Service Examination, cannot be complied with.

As perhaps my previous letter did not afford sufficient information, I beg to resubmit it with the following additional particulars, and request that you will be pleased to give it your favorable consideration.

I entered the Service of Government in the Subordinate Medical Department as an unpaid candidate in December 1855, and after passing through the grades of Paid Candidate, Junior, and Senior Medical Apprentice, and Assistant Apothecary, I resigned the Service on the 29th June 1864, my period of service up to that date as per margin (including service as unpaid candidate) was nearly 7 years.

My late father also served in the Subordinate Medical Department for a period of 27 years, attained the grade of Senior Apothecary, and was senior on the list for the most grade to which he did in June 1857. He served with the 33rd Madras in 1854, in Canada and Afghanistan with the 33rd and 11th Regts from 1850 to 1855, and was present at the battles of Nagah, Murre, and Hyderabad. Served in Burma with the 1st Madras Fusiliers in 1852-53; accompanied that Corps for service to Rangoon in the early part of 1857, and returned to Bombay when the Regiment was recalled to Madras. In March 1857 accompanied the 1st Madras Fusiliers to Bengal, on account of the late Mutiny, and it is on this service that my Father died from Leishmania while proceeding on a Steam Boat to Benares.

I was inclined to resign the service at the earnest request of my Mother, as being her eldest son that should anything happen to her, I may be on the spot to look after my five younger brothers and sisters, the eldest of whom is only 14 years old. Although I was stationed at Madras and near my Mother at the time of my resignation, yet, she knew my former experience in my late Father's Case, the uncertainty of the movements of an Apothecary, frequently ordered away at a hour's notice, and that I would be suddenly removed anywhere, earnestly entreated me to leave the service at once for the reason above stated.

Under the Unconvenanted Service Rules, a servant of Government (Clerk) has the option of leaving one Office and getting another within the consent of the head of his Office, but in any case I could not do so, I was obliged first to resign my position in the Medical Service, and then look for employment elsewhere. I deeply regret that it is hard that I should be required to pass the Unconvenanted Service Examination to obtain employment, while the Clerk, whose case is analogous to mine (as he must resign the post in his own Office to get into another) is exempted therefrom.

In resigning the Medical Service it was at a great sacrifice to myself, having to pay up all that I received in the shape of pay from my appointment from the date of my promotion as Paisandicate, up to passing the College, a sum upwards of 400 Rupees.

Further I had to pass an examination for admission into the Medical Service, in English and one of the Vernacular languages (Tamil), and to study the science of medicine in all its branches, in the Madras Medical College, to obtain the grade of Assistant Apothecary, for which I possess a Certificate of Qualification.

I am myself a married man with two children, and trust you will on taking the above detailed circumstances into consideration, as a special case have me exempted from passing the Unconvenanted Service Examination, so enable me to take up an Appointment in an Office at once.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most Obedient Servant
